

Making a Difference.....

C. J. Smith Memorial Endowment Fund

C. J. Smith was a young man active in school and youth ministry. In 1975, just shy of age 19, C. J. passed away of cancer. His faith, determination, leadership and service had such an impact on his friends and family, they created a fund in his memory to support the New Albany Deanery Catholic Youth Ministries projects in Harrison County.

Contact us to learn how to create a lasting legacy for your loved one.

*Located on Foundation Way in Corydon
812-738-6668 • www.hccfindiana.org*

HARRISON COUNTY
Building our future together